

ORCHARD DOWNS

LAMBERHURST | KENT

Welcome to
ORCHARD DOWNS

Lamberhurst Kent TN3 8HB

The start of something special.

Set in the picturesque Garden of England but within easy reach of Tunbridge Wells, Orchard Downs encapsulates the very best of countryside living. This collection of 26 homes nestles within the High Weald National Landscape and sits on the edge of a Conservation Area – accolades that recognise Lamberhurst's natural beauty.

Neighbours include a 16th century farmhouse and an original oast complete with iconic white fantails, for added Kentish authenticity.

The homes at Orchard Downs will be built in homage, drawing external inspiration from these heritage buildings and the wider architectural landscape.

Your community in the countryside

Lamberhurst is a quintessential Kentish village brimming with character and community charm. At its heart lies the gently flowing River Teise and Orchard Downs is directly linked to Lamberhurst village centre and Scotney Castle by a network of historic footpaths.

The village retains all of the ingredients for a comfortable life, including a general store with Post Office counter, village hall, nursery and pre-school, primary school, central common, a café and St Mary's Church – the latter playing host to the annual Lamberhurst Music Festival.

Orchard Downs sits just minutes from some amazing eateries, such as the Brown Trout, The Vineyard, The Chequers and The Elephants Head. All these local pubs are steeped in history yet cater for modern tastes.

Nature's bounty awaits

Walk, cycle, run, ride, swim or even sail in Lamberhurst, thanks to two of Kent's most popular outdoor attractions. Bewl Water is the largest reservoir in South East England – a place where 800 acres of parkland meets the water's edge.

Bedgebury National Pinetum and Forest is another awe-inspiring location close to Orchard Downs, with mountain biking, walking and horse riding trails set among 12,000 specimen trees and lush woodlands.

Orchard Downs is set in a corner of Kent coveted for its mix of idyllic villages and lively town facilities. The scenic, seven mile route to Tunbridge Wells passes through glorious landscapes, with signs tempting you to explore vineyards, National Trust properties and golf courses in Frant, Wadhurst and Bells Yew Green.

Once in Tunbridge Wells, there is a veritable feast of retail, hospitality and cultural delights. Often described as the Covent Garden of Kent, The Pantiles brings together boutiques, bars, pavement cafés and live jazz, set against a splendid Georgian colonnade. The top end of town is where you'll find two theatres, The Amelia Scott cultural hub, Royal Victoria Place shopping centre and more award-winning restaurants.

With Tunbridge Wells also noted for its outstanding grammar and faith schools, historic architecture and open spaces, it's no wonder the town has been voted one of the UK's best places to live by The Sunday Times.

A Continued Legacy of Craftsmanship

A B Canham & Son and Canham Homes

At the heart of Canham Homes lies a proud heritage built on over five decades of experience, traditional craftsmanship, and unwavering family values. That story begins with A B Canham & Son, a name synonymous with building quality homes across Kent for more than 50 years.

Celebrating 50 Years of Building Excellence

Established in 1974, A B Canham & Son marked its 50th anniversary in 2024 — a remarkable milestone that reflects a long-standing commitment to building quality homes for half a century. Over the years, the company has earned a trusted reputation for delivering everything from bespoke homes and renovations to commercial builds, always with attention to detail and pride in workmanship.

A Natural Evolution

While A B Canham & Son continues to operate as a respected construction company, Canham Homes was established to bring that same ethos into new home development — building carefully designed homes and developments where quality, character, and care come first.

This next chapter in our story allows us to create thoughtfully planned developments while maintaining the hands-on, personal approach that has defined the Canham name for generations.

The Same People, The Same Principles

Though the branding may differ, the heart of the business remains unchanged. The same people, the same team, and the same high standards underpin both A B Canham & Son and Canham Homes. Every home we build is treated as if it were our own — with responsibility, pride, and a commitment to lasting quality.

From 1974 to today — trusted for generations, building for the future.
